The following are the criteria against which grant applications are considered:

- Applications to the fund can only be made for Religious Education (RE) resources on Christianity. These can include textbooks, teacher resources, artefacts, videos, tapes and CD-Roms for use in RE lessons. Only resources which focus solely on the Christian religion are eligible. The fund is not intended for use towards the purchase of resources for assemblies or other school activities.
- The fund is open to all primary and secondary schools. Priority however will be given to non-church state secondary schools.
- The maximum size of grant that can be awarded is £500. Schools which receive a grant will not be eligible to apply for a further award from the fund until two years have elapsed after the date the grant is made.
- When funding decisions are made, the quality and shelf-life of resources, and the number of pupils that will benefit from them, will be taken into account.
- One year on from receiving the grant, the school agrees to complete a report form which will be sent to the school on how the resources were used and how they improved the teaching of Christianity in the school – both from teachers' and pupils' points of view. Any anecdotal evidence from staff or children would be especially interesting. The report should also include details of the overall numbers in the school, and also the number of children educated by means of the funded resources. These details will form the basis of a report to Trustees and the trust's education partners who maintain a keen interest in the present state and future development of RE.
- Written applications should be sent to JT Bursary Scheme, The Stapleford Centre, The Old Lace Mill, Frederick Road, Stapleford, Nottingham, NG9 8FN and should be signed by the Head of RE or RE subject leader if different from the applicant teacher.
- The Headteacher must counter-sign the application form undertaking that the grant funds will be in addition to the existing RE budget for the school in the current and subsequent years, and not in place of it.

Successful applicants will be informed in writing once a decision has been made. Please note that we anticipate receiving a large number of applications and, regretfully, will be unable to make a grant in response to every one of them.
